YAYASAN SABAH GROUP WITH THE COMMUNITY THROUGH MCS

KOTA KINABALU (Tuesday): Yayasan Sabah Group participated in the Mobile Community Services (MCS) programme organised by the Sabah Federal Treasury. The programme was held on 28 January 2024 at Sri Gum-Gum Hall, Sandakan involving over 30 State and Federal departments and agencies.

At the event, Yayasan Sabah Group provides various services for the public, such as the chance to pursue higher education at Yayasan Sabah Technology College (KTYS) and University College Sabah Foundation (UCSF). The participation from Pusat Kraftangan Sabah (PKS) and Yayasan Sabah Group's East Coast North Zone Office added zest to the programme, which showcased handicrafts produced by local entrepreneurs in Sabah.

The MCS programme is a part of the government's initiative to provide accessible services to people, particularly in rural areas. Through this programme, Yayasan Sabah Group focuses on local community services through access to information on education and capacity-building activities.
