YSG BRINGING THE LOCAL COMMUNITY TOGETHER

KENINGAU (Wednesday): Yayasan Sabah Group, through its Interior North Zone, hosted an Iftar event on 26 March 2024, bringing together local community members to break their fast during the holy month of Ramadan. The event was held at the Babur Rahman Mosque, Kg. Sinulihan Baru, Sook, Keningau. About 150 people from Kg. Sinulihan attended the event.

State Assistant Minister of Community Development and People's Wellbeing cum Tulid Assemblywoman, Datuk Flovia Ng, attended the event as well as Yayasan Sabah Chief Coordinator of Zone Administration, Encik Zulkhairi bin Haji Ismail and Yayasan Sabah Interior North Chief Zone Coordinator, Encik Teo Guan Leck.

In her speech, Datuk Flovia commended Yayasan Sabah Group for implementing of various social programmes, which include education and community development that has established a strong multiply effect on local community development.

Datuk Flovia noted, "Sabahans lead the way in racial and religious harmony. This is evident today when Yayasan Sabah Group invited me to be here with all of you. By being here, I believe that this is the only way I can show what love and respect are all about. I am delighted to be able to share the joy of Ramadan with all of you here today."

During the ceremony, Datuk Flovia handed out food ie. packets of rice to the 50 Asnaf (underprivileged low-income families) from Kg. Sinulihan Baru and Encik Zulkhairi handed presented donation to the Babur Rahman Mosque Development Fund.
