SICC SETS THE TABLE FOR CULINARY EXCELLENCE

KOTA KINABALU (Friday): Sabah International Convention Centre (SICC) dazzles with culinary excellence, clinched a coveted spot in the prestigious Asia Book of Records for “Maximum Dishes Prepared by International Cuisines” for its “Taste of The World” Ramadan Buffet, boasting an impressive selection of over 850 dishes representing diverse international cuisines on 4 April 2024, presented by the Chief Minister of Sabah’s wife, Datin Seri Panglima Datuk Hajah Juliah Salag.

With their entry into the Asia Book of Records, SICC and its Ramadan Buffet are poised to take centre stage, solidifying SICC’s position in the culinary industry. Their meticulously created menu seamlessly blends traditional Ramadan dishes with a modern twist, ensuring an incredibly immersive and unique dining experience for every visitor. This gastronomic journey transcends borders, tantalising the senses and setting an unparalleled standard for culinary achievement.

Commenting on this noteworthy accomplishment, the Chief Executive Officer of D’Heritage Sdn. Bhd., the wholly-owned company of Yayasan Sabah Group, Datuk Dr. Hajah Rosmawati Haji Lasuki said, “This record-breaking endeavour will strengthen SICC’s status as a renowned culinary destination, demonstrating its commitment to culinary innovation and excellence, while also celebrating cultural richness and fostering community engagement. This milestone will catalyse future culinary innovations and deepen community collaborations.”
